stable be & true presentement make of blode shedyng outcryes and frayes of restous & duely kepe vnto my power that longeth vnto the office of a constable to do so helpe me god & holydome/& &c de alijs.

¶I shall true lyege mā be and true fayth bere to kyng Henry the eyght that now is and to his heyres & be no thefe ne theues fere nor thefe knowe ne treason ne kepe it counseyll but I shal enfourme & do to wete theym that be the kynges officers that haue ỳ lawe in gouernaunce. &c. ¶And shal be buxom and obedyent to the Justyces & commyssyoners sherifes eschetours bayliues & constables and to al other officers of the kynge in all that they shall charge me lawfully so helpe me god. &c.

¶And whan all the courte is done than shall the stewarde chose two or thre or foure afferes to affere the courte vpon theyr othe newe charged. &c.

¶Ye shall truely offer the trespasse presented at this courte and no man assesse more greuously for wrathe ne more easely for loue/but truely after the quantyte of the wronge or trespas after your conscyens assesse euery persone so helpe you god & holydome holdynge theyr handes vpon ỳ boke durynge ỳ charge & make them kysse the boke. ¶Woons sucs reddic. teñ.

¶To whome the stewarde shall saye take hym ỳ yerde and he shall holde the one ende & the stewarde shal holde the other ende and shal say thus in ỳ full courte I yelde vp my tenement and londe that is called B ỳ whiche I holde of this lordshyp at the lordes wyll after the custome of this man to the b[illegible] & and of his heyres. &c.

stable be & true presentement make of blode shedyng outcryes and frayes of restous & duely kepe vnto my power that longeth vnto the office of a constable to do so helpe me god & holydome/& &c de alijs.

¶I shall true lyege mā be and true fayth bere to kyng Henry the eyght that now is and to his heyres & be no thefe ne theues fere nor thefe knowe ne treason ne kepe it counseyll but I shal enfourme & do to wete theym that be the kynges officers that haue ỳ lawe in gouernaunce. &c. ¶And shal be buxom and obedyent to the Justyces & commyssyoners sherifes eschetours bayliues & constables and to al other officers of the kynge in all that they shall charge me lawfully so helpe me god. &c.

¶And whan all the courte is done than shall the stewarde chose two or thre or foure afferes to affere the courte vpon theyr othe newe charged. &c.

¶Ye shall truely offer the trespasse presented at this courte and no man assesse more greuously for wrathe ne more easely for loue/but truely after the quantyte of the wronge or trespas after your conscyens assesse euery persone so helpe you god & holydome holdynge theyr handes vpon ỳ boke durynge ỳ charge & make them kysse the boke. ¶Woons sucs reddic. teñ.

¶To whome the stewarde shall saye take hym ỳ yerde and he shall holde the one ende & the stewarde shal holde the other ende and shal say thus in ỳ full courte I yelde vp my tenement and londe that is called B ỳ whiche I holde of this lordshyp at the lordes wyll after the custome of this man to the b[illegible] & and of his heyres. &c.

¶ Modꝰ qualit̄ seneschalc̄ debꝫabit seiam alicui de tert̄ act. dño per scōm cōs̄ manerij. ¶ The stewarde shall take the one ende of the yerde in ꝑ hande of hym that shall haue the londe / & he shal say thus to hym my lorde graūted here to you season of this londe that ye haue taken here in courte to you & to your heyres to holde at my lordes wyll after the custome of this maner ¶ Et cū hoc factū fuerit ꝑ stewarde shal byd hym lay his honde vpon the boke and do his feaute and say in this wyse. I shal bere fayth and trouth to my lorde of this maner as for this londe that I haue take to holde here of my lorde in courte & truely to paye the rentes sutes and seruyces that longeth therto as for the tyme that I shall occuppye / so god me helpe. &c. & byd hym kysse the boke & laye downe a peny or two as ꝑ maner is. &c. Et nota that it behoueth ꝑ stewarde to haue theyr names.

¶ Modus diuersar̄ copiar̄. Cū̄ total̄ terris & tenementis accept̄ & habit̄ scōm consuetudinem manerij tenēt ad voluntatē dñi per virgā qualiter debet clericꝰ eas scribere in rotulo cū̄.

¶ Ad hanc cū̄ dñs cōcessit extra manus suas per T[illegible] seneschallū suū T R & A vroꝛ eius vnū tenemen[illegible] ter acris terre cū pertinentijs iacentes apud [illegible] quibus dñs per seneschallū conc. seiam tenend̄ sibi & heredibus suis de dño per virgā ad voluntatem dñi scōm cōs̄ manerij & dat dño de fine ꝑ ingressu suū habend̄ ꝑut patet in capite facere dño fidelitatē.

¶ Ad hanc cū̄ dño cōc. per T R seneschall̄ suū R [illegible] et Johanne[illegible] vnū messuagiū. vi. act̄ terre cū ꝑ[illegible] iacen[illegible] dorat̄ habend̄ et tenend̄ predict[illegible] & terras cum pertinen dictat̄ T [illegible] & A heredi et licene. dñi admitti secundū cons̄ manerij ad tertiam partem predicti messagij tenend̄ sibi consuetudinem manerij forma predicta. Et dant dño de fine. ꝛc. Et fecit dño fidelitatem postea aut̄ ven̄ predict̄ T filius et heres p̄dict̄ J B ꝛ petit scōm consuetudinem manerij se admitti ad predict̄ duas partes predicti contagij cū acciderit post mortem predicte A. ꝛc. cui dñs inde concessit seisinam tenend̄ sibi ꝛ hered̄ suis ꝛ dño ad voluntatē dñi per servic. inde debit̄ ꝛ de iur̄ cōsuetur. Et dat dño de fine p̄ ingr̄. ꝛc. Et ten̄. ꝛc.

[redacted] [redacted] [redacted]

¶ Imprynted at London in Poules chyrchyarde at the sygne of the Trynyte By Henry Pepwell.

henry pepwell